

HISTORIC WALLKILL

AND

HUDSON RIVER VALLEYS

Historical Souvenir Booklets of the Wallkill and Hudson River Valleys

WILLIAM C. HART, Editor and Publisher, WALDEN, N. Y.

Thirtieth Year of Publication

SPECIAL FEATURES OF THE ART SOUVENIR NUMBERS

- 1894—Borden's Home Farms.
1895—Historical.
1896—Tributary Streams of the Wallkill.
1897—Indian Localities and Hostilities.
1898—Battle of Minisink.
1899—Churches of the Wallkill Valley.
1900—Beautiful Landscape Views.
1901—The Wallkill Valley at Gettysburg, Orange County Agricultural Society, Mountain Drives of Mohonk.
1902—Through the Valley of the Wallkill. Profusely illustrated.
1903—Companion Volume of 1902.
1904—Gems from the Hudson. Famous Horses of Orange County.
1905—The Hudson and Wallkill Rivers. City of Middletown. In Art and Story.
1906—Lake Mohonk, profusely illustrated. Orange Blossoms and Guests at Gettysburg. Walden in Profile. The Catskills and Queenly Hudson.
1907—Mohonk Snowbound. Historical Sketch. Wallkill Valley Farmers' Association, illustrated.
1908—Hendrick Hudson's River and Half Moon. Vassar College. Art Collection of Sculpture—a charming number.
1909—The Centennial of the Hudson and Centennial of the Steamboat, graphically delineated and superbly illustrated—Old Home Week, Middletown. The Goshen-Bradley Monument, Walden and Montgomery.
1910—"The Ideal of Child Life," charmingly illustrated from photographs from life, revealing all that is lovable in the versatile faces and fortunes of the "little people"—the Seasons in Art and Story.
1911—Frontier Life—War of the Revolution. Anthony Wayne and Stony Point—Portrait of Symbolic Statues—A superb booklet.
1912—Old Kingston, illustrated. Communications from the Spirit-land. Historical Sketch, Town of Montgomery. Rare Old Engravings.
1913—Washington and his English ancestors with scenes around Newburgh. Old Homes of Orange County. Famous statues, a fine art number.
1914—Rare Historic Incidents from Gifted Authors. Choice Gems of Poetry. The History and development of the Automobile. Burning of the Falls House. The Harvest of Death.
1915—Tom Quick the Indian fighter. The Mission of the flowers. Woman's Suffrage. County and City work of the Young Men's Christian Assn. Silent Cities. Rare illustrations.
1916—Close of Tom Quick, the Indian Slayer. The Seasons and Intervening Months with rare and beautiful illustrations. Historic data. Views of Orange Lake.
1917—The glory of the Mountains, Mohonk Lake, Joffre with the French Delegation at Newburgh May 11, 1917. Superbly illustrated.
1918—Enoch Crosby, or The Spy Unmasked. The undaunted spy of the American Revolution. Superb double insert pages of Mohonk Lake, the Hudson and Mount Beacon. Graphic delineation of the beauty and charm of the Hudson by the late historian and poet, Wallace Bruce. Charming bits of prose and verse by eminent authors. Retrospective glimpses into the past.
1919—Historical Sketch Orange County Agricultural Society illustrated 1841—1919. Indian Shelter Rock of Shawangunk Mountains. The Red Cross Court of Honor, Newburgh-on-Hudson.
1920—The Shawangunk and its environs, conclusion of Indian Shelter Rocks, interspersed with charming views of Lake Mohonk and Minnewaska.
1921—Old Roads—Mohonk in Olden Times. The Delaware Indians. The Schuyler Mansion at Albany.
1922—The charm of the wondrous scenic beauty of The Hudson, The Queen of Rivers, as viewed from the famous Storm King Boulevard, thus blending all into a loving cable reaching from heart to heart of Mountain and River.
1923 and 1924—A vanished people, or The American Indian. Their mementoes of earth, bone, and stone implements. Location of Wigwams, Villages, Trading Centers, Burial Places. Life story of old Pete Meigs. The massacre of his people and the fearful retribution that followed. Address W. C. HART, Walden, N. Y. Future editions will be published by the Moore Printing Co., Newburgh, N. Y.

Any volume, 35 cents. The entire set, 1894-1924 for $5.00, representing more than one thousand views with pen-pictures describing the beauty and the utility, the glory and the grandeur of the localities. Only a few complete issues remain.